

Where Belonging Makes a Difference

As a valued member of Leavenworth County Farm Bureau, you're a part of a non-profit, grassroots organization committed to the future of agriculture and the communities in which we live. Through advocacy, education and community outreach, we work together to help secure future food and fiber for all. Whether you live on the farm or in the city, Farm Bureau's services, benefits and programs are designed to benefit you and your family.
